Reserve your seat on the bench...the glass blowing bench! The Museum of Glass invites you to fire up your creative energies and experience the art of making glass. Under the guidance of the museum's resident Hot Shop team, your group of 12 will enjoy two hours of personal instruction and guided hot glass sculpting. Each member of your party will create a personal work of art to commemorate the experience. Light refreshments will be provided.

To take place on a mutually agreeable Monday or Tuesday during the months of October 2007 through March 2008.

Steve Jensen

Like all his work, Turtle by Steve Jensen, PONCHO’s 2002 Artist of the Year, is inspired by the abundant beauty of the world’s natural resources and the precariousness of the relations that we maintain with them.

Rita Moore

If it seems like Rita Moore created this work of art specifically for tonight, it’s because she did! The artist’s work, Hot, was inspired by the excitement and energy expressed by 2007 Gala Chair Naomi Ruiz at the PONCHO Gala Auction kickoff party. Bold shapes and hot colors produce the sensation of dynamic motion as the tango dancers seem to move across the canvas. Through this work, Moore portrays the drama and cultural awareness of romance and love.

Hong Nian Zhang

This beautifully composed portrait of a young boy is by Chinese-born American artist Hong Nian Zhang. His style is reminiscent of great old book illustrators like Pyle and Wyeth. Zhang's works have appeared in many publications and three of his Chinese historical paintings have been acquired for National Geographic Society collection.

Jared Rue

As a Northwest native, Jared Rue's paintings are a direct reflection of his awe of the natural surroundings in which he lives. Distant Bank is part of Rue's Waterbank series. The evolution has brought the focus to the foreground leaving the trees in a veil of fog. Rue is currently represented by Woodside/Braseth Gallery.

Broadway Revival of South Pacific for 4 and Dinner with the Director; INTIMAN’s own Barlett Sher!

Rogers and Hammerstein’s South Pacific, one of the most beloved musicals of all time, has not had a single Broadway revival since it premiered in 1949. INTIMAN Theatre Artistic Director Barlett Sher, a two-time Tony Award nominee, will make history with the first Broadway staging in more than 50 years when he directs a major new production, opening at Lincoln Center Theater in the winter of 2008. In addition to four tickets to this extraordinary theatrical event, you will also be invited to a catered dinner in the fall of 2007 at the Queen Anne home of Bart and his wife, Seattle actor Kristin Flanders, along with members of the PONCHO leadership team. During the dinner, you will be treated to “insider” stories, casting news and other plans for this highly-anticipated production.

Mutually agreeable date for dinner in fall 2007. Tickets to South Pacific will be arranged closer to the opening in winter 2008. Opening night not available.

Front Row Tickets for 14 to David Sedaris and Dinner at Flying Fish

David Sedaris may well be the closest thing the literary world has these days to a rock star—his speaking engagements are now consistently standing-room only, a far cry from his early days as a housecleaner in New York City. But you don't have to worry about that with these 14 front row tickets to his October 26 performance at Benaroya Hall. From his days as a Macy's elf, clad in green tights, Sedaris' sardonic wit and incisive social critiques have since made him one of America's preeminent writers and master satirists. The evening includes dinner for your party at Belltown's Flying Fish, the 2006 Sante Magazine Culinary Hospitality Restaurant of the Year, and apparently, Sedaris' favorite spot when in Seattle—but you didn't hear it from us (wink)!

- 14 front row tickets to David Sedaris
- Dinner for 14 at Flying Fish

Date specific: October 26, 2007. Dinner reservation prior to the show must be made for 5:00 pm or 5:30 pm. Dinner reservations after the show must be made for 10:00 pm or later. Please make reservations by October 5, 2007 to guarantee availability. Does not include tax or gratuity.
