Walk-On Role in ACT's Presentation of A Christmas Carol

"I have endeavored, in this ghostly little book, to raise the ghost of an idea, which shall not put my readers out of humor with themselves, with each other and with the season, or me. May it haunt their houses pleasantly." So said Charles Dickens of his treasured holiday tale A Christmas Carol. One lucky person will have a walk-on role in ACT's presentation of this holiday favorite. As walk-on performer you will appear in three scenes over the course of the play and receive special recognition and a biography in that evening's program detailing the path took to get there! In addition, ACT will provide tickets for six additional guests to watch the performance, and enjoy a preshow reception.

Dates must be organized in advance. Contact ACT by September 1, 2007. Walk-on performer must attend a pre-performance rehearsal and viewing of an earlier performance, as well as take part in a costume fitting.

Private Tour of The Vatican Museums and St. Peter's Basilica for 2

This is an opportunity that few get to experience—a private tour of the Vatican Museums and St. Peter's Basilica. Your day will start by departing your hotel by private car, where you will be accompanied by an English speaking guide for your visit to the Vatican Museums, the richest storehouse of art in the entire world. You will be awed by the size and scope of the incredible collections displayed in the Tapestry and Geographical Maps Galleries, the Candelabra Gallery and the magnificent Raphael Rooms. Travel on to the Sistine Chapel with its striking masterpieces by Botticelli, Signorelli, Perugino and the breathtaking Genesis and Last Judgment by Michelangelo. Continue to visit the vast expanse of St. Peter's Square, which holds over 300,000 people, and pass through the embracing arms of Bernini's colonnades as you enter into the Christendom's largest church—St. Peter's Basilica. Suspended over the altar, where the Pope celebrates mass, is the gilded papal canopy called Baldacchino, created by Bernini in the 17th century. In the apse is the splendid gilt and bronzed throne, also designed by Bernini. Then, view one of the best-known pieces of sculpture in the world, the Pieta, Michelangelo's masterpiece in white marble. Upon completion of your excursion, you will be returned to your hotel by private car.
