Palouse Winery Scenic Plane Trip and Winery Visit for 3

Join winemaker George Kirkish and fly in a private plane to the Palouse Winery for a private barrel tasting of this boutique winery's fine vintages complete with hors d'oeuvres. Named for a street in Walla Walla as well as for the great rolling wheat fields of Eastern Washington, the Palouse Winery uses grapes from several Yakima Valley vineyards including Portteus, Dineen and Meek. Production started at just a few barrels and has grown to 1,000 cases. This "pocket winery" does well with both whites and reds — a barrel-fermented viognier; a ripe, round riesling; and soft, dark and tannic reds made from blends of merlot, cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc and petit syrah.

*Mutually agreeable date and time. Plane can include 2 to 3 people and leaves from Boeing Field.
Expires April 30, 2009.*

OS Winery Private Tasting for 10 and Salamanazar (9 Liter) of 2003 Ulysses

You and your friends will join winemaker Bill Owen for a private afternoon of wine tasting and fun at OS Winery, located just south of downtown Seattle. Taste new releases, barrel samples and tour this boutique winery known for “some of Washington’s plushiest and headiest reds,” according to Wine Spectator. Exotic cheeses will be provided to complement the wines you sample. This will be a memorable, interactive afternoon and wonderful event to share with friends, as well as an opportunity to learn from the winemaker himself about wines from grape to glass. Also in this package is a monumental salamanzar, a full nine liters, of the 2003 Ulysses from Sheridan Vineyards. Offering aromas of seasoned saddle leather, raspberries, sweet tobacco, rose, vanilla and amarino cherries on the nose, this opulent and savory blend, inspired by Bordeaux’s right bank, offers the palate maturing fig, raspberry and red currants with graphite and Belgian chocolate nuances, with rich fine tannins and an extensive finish. This extraordinary wine garnered 93 points by Wine Enthusiast.

Discover the Blues in Port Townsend for 2

Discover the Heart of the Blues at Centrum in Port Townsend! Perfect for any aspiring or hobby musician, or a thoughtful gift for the musician in your life, this package allows for total Blues immersion with a host of workshops and incredible performances. The cornerstone of the Port Townsend Country Blues Festival is the week-long workshop, July 27 – August 3, 2008, where participants live and play with the bearers of acoustic country blues traditions. While the main focus of the gathering is on older pre-war styles of blues, daily classes are offered in Piedmont-style fingerpicking, blues guitar, slide guitar, harmonica, fiddle, mandolin, blues piano, blues singing, and gospel choir, all taught by masters of the traditions. This ultimate blues package includes:

- One workshop tuition to the Port Townsend Country Blues Festival where you'll spend a week living and jamming with blues legends at Fort Worden State Park
- Two VIP passes to all mainstage and club performances at the Port Townsend Country Blues Festival where you'll enjoy mainstage concerts at the Fort's WWI-era balloon hangar as well as intimate club shows in quaint downtown Port Townsend
- Two Port Townsend Country Blues Festival "Swag" Packages, each containing a Festival t-shirt, a copy of Centrum's tribute CD to the legendary John Jackson, as well as a Festival poster
- Private harmonica tips from Artistic Director Phil Wiggins!

Only workshop tuition is covered; room and board are at the choice and discretion of the participant. Tickets must be reserved by calling the Centrum Box Office by June 1, 2008. Harmonica tips take place in one 15-minute, informal session.
