Caymus has one of the most enviable track records of any California winery. Robert Parker notes that at Caymus "Cabernet is King," and they continue to produce consistently impressive wines, year after year. Parker has been tasting their wines since the 1970s and "finds it remarkable the winery has never gone through a slump." This 12 bottle vertical includes each vintage from 1994-2007, with the exception of the 1996 and 2000, which are excluded.

1095 TOUR AND TASTING FOR FOUR AT BODEGAS ALEJANDRO FERNÁNDEZ TINTO PESQUERA IN PESQUERA DE DUERO, SPAIN AND TWO MAGNUMS OF 1996 PESQUERA MILLENIUM

Alejandro Fernández was instrumental in putting Spain back on the map as a major player in international fine winemaking. International acclaim in the 1980s for his Tinto Pesquera inspired an entire new generation of winemakers and awakened fine wine consumers worldwide to the new potential for quality in Spain's wine regions. Your group of four will be welcomed to the beautiful Bodagas Alejandro Fernández for a special tour and tasting. Tonight, take home two magnums of 2006 Pesquera Millenium. This wine was the first to be aged in French oak, and remains one of the greatest wines in Fernández's famous winemaking career.
