Of one of the great Estates of the Rhône Valley, Robert Parker notes, "I have been visiting this estate for nearly thirty years, and over that time I have seen all the elements of what makes wines great - an incredible respect for the vineyards, a conscientious, uncompromising work ethic, and an extraordinary passion for gentle handling of fruit from their sites."

The finish goes on and on, and the wine is beautifully pure. It can be drunk now or cellared for 12 or more years. 2067 BOND ESTATES AND HARLAN ESTATES

This is a terrific opportunity to take home wines from both of Bill Harlan's Napa Valley estates, Bond and Harlan. Harlan Estate's second label, "The Maiden," closely resembles the Harlan Estates style and is characterized by gorgeous tannins and rich caramel and espresso notes. Bond Estates was born from relationships forged by Bill Harlan over his many years in the area. He identified a number of small, hillside Cabernet vineyards, ranging in size from 7 to 10 acres, which he believed could be the basis for Grand Cru quality wines. These vineyards became the backbone of Bond wines. Tonight, the winning bidder takes home five bottles of Bond Estate wines and three bottles from Harlan Estates. Bond's 1999 inaugural vintage Cabernet Sauvignon, one each from the Vecina and Melbury vineyards, are packaged in their original wooden case. Three bottles of Bond "The Matriarch," a blend sourced from all of Bond's vineyards, and three bottles of 1999 Harlan Estates "The Maiden" in original wooden cases are also part of this lot. All of these wines have been perfectly stored by longtime PONCHO Board Member Tom Captain.

A blend of 64% Cabernet Sauvignon and 36% Merlot, this vintage "exhibits a dense purple color as well as abundant aromas of chocolate, coffee, cedar, black currants, and a subtle touch of smoke, a rich, savory, full-bodied mouthfeel, plump, fleshy fruit, and a superb finish.
